A. Admissions Confirmation Package

Those who pass the interview stage need to submit the following documents to the Admissions Office.

- ✓ Medical Report
- ✓ Notice of Intention
- ✓ Financial Statement
- ✓ TSMS Covenant
- ✓ TSMS Deposit

B. TSMS Deposit

This deposit is for securing the expense of returning home after graduation from TTGU.

Thus, new students should wire KRW1,000,000 (approximately USD800) to the school account before receiving the visa documents. This deposit will be fully refunded to purchase an air ticket in the last semester of the program. The account information for TSMS Deposit will be provided with the Admissions Confirmation Package.

VIII. TUITION AND FEES

Full scholarships cover tuition and room only. Therefore, students are responsible for all other expenses, such as board, medical insurance, emergency expenses, and books, during their studies at Torch Trinity. Please note that personal fundraising in Korea is prohibited for TSMS students.

IX. DORMITORY

TSMS students are required to reside in the dormitory during their degree programs.

X. WELL-BEING

Life away from home for several years will certainly be exciting and adventurous, but sometimes challenging, especially from having to adapt to the rigors of academic work in a different cultural setting. Torch Trinity expects that each TSMS student will not only acknowledge these realities, but also have the basic physical, emotional, and spiritual readiness to successfully finish their study in Korea. Before making the final decision, applicants are responsible for performing basic research on what life in Korea entails, including different weather, food, and culture.

If you have any other concerns, please contact the Admissions Office.
