

Life and Welfare

1. Crime Prevention Information for Foreigners (produced by Seoul Metropolitan Police Agency) Korean culture and laws may be different from other nations. To protect international students to become the victims or perpetrators of crimes, Seoul Metropolitan Police Agency has provided a 25- minute video in 6 different languages: English, Chinese, Japanese, Russian, Mongolian, Vietnamese available. On YouTube, please type “Crime Prevention Information for Foreigners”, and watch this.

- Korean: https://youtu.be/h-6Jzg_VUcA
 English: https://youtu.be/h-6Jzg_VUcA
 Chinese: https://youtu.be/OoxaH5d6R_w
 Japanese: <https://youtu.be/VCJpU-7wIQ>
 Russian: <https://youtu.be/IOa38Nde44g>
 Mongolia: https://youtu.be/Xzaloky_dhk
 Vietnamese: <https://youtu.be/it1OI37F-k4>

Cartoon Series for Crime Prevention Education * To view the cartoon, scan the QR Code below.

Korean

Chinese

English

Vietnamese

2. Video/Audio References

- Korean Updated New in English
 Living in Korea as international students, it is quite important for our int'l students to be aware of the updated regional news. You can find Korea's updated news at Arirang TV and Radio in English language. www.arirang.com
- Learn Korean Language & Culture Online: Nuri-Sejonghaktang
 Nuri-Sejonghaktang is a website that provides general information about Korean language and culture to people learning Korean language. Nuri-Sejonghaktang provides various educational materials (videos, online lectures and webtoons) to Korean language learners for free. www.sejonghaktang.org