<Appendix 1: Accreditation Certification Approval of Overseas University>

If an applicant has obtained a degree from an overseas university, an Apostille certificate or consular confirmation must be issued and submitted to prove that the graduate certificate is an official document of the country where the degree was obtained.

For documents not written in Korean or English, a notarized translation in Korean or English must be attached. If you are applying through an agency in Korea, it may take up to two months. We recommend that you apply well in advance of the admission deadline to avoid delays.

1. Graduates from a university in Apostille Convention Country(www.hcch.net/en/home)

- Submit the graduate certificate (or transcript) with an Apostille.
- Apostille issuance procedure:

Issuance of graduate certificate (or transcript) in the relevant country → (Notarized by the notarized office in case of private documents) → Visit Apostille issuing organization →
Apply for Apostille issuance → Review by Apostille issuing agency → Issuance of Apostille

- See www.hcch.net/index_en.php?act=conventions.authorities&cid=41.

2. Graduates from a university in other countries

- Submit the graduate certificate confirmed by the Consular of the Korean Embassy in the country where the certificate is issued or the foreign embassy in Korea.

3. Graduates from a university in China

- Submit the 'Degree Certificate' issued by CHSI (www.chsi.com.cn/en)
- If you want to get the documents in Korea, contact the Confucius Institute in Seoul.
